
21 Ways to Gift a Penny

Charitable Gifts

- coin boxes / jars / cans at retail stores, restaurants, local businesses
- collections at houses of worship
- drop boxes at national parks or other nature conservancy places
- kettles with bell ringers
- fountains and water features which collect and give to causes

Active Gifts

You get to share in the joy and smiles. These are fun!

- to a co-worker saying, “Lucky Penny” or “Thanks for what you do.”
- to a cashier at a retail store, restaurant or business, “For You—for Good Luck.”
- to a child saying, “Because you are special.”
- to a friend or spouse saying, “Keep this with you today and know I’ll be thinking of you.”

Passive Gifts

Places to ‘plant’ your penny. These can be left anonymously.

- in a shoe
- in a lunch pail or sack
- under a dinner plate
- on a phone receiver with a note saying “centing you a hello”
- under a coffee cup
- on the chair of a co-worker or classmate
- on a computer mouse or pad
- in the fridge with a note saying “eat centsibly”
- on a steering wheel or dashboard
- on a doorknob
- on a shower handle
- on a coffee stir stick and planted in a flower pot as “seed money”

You may need to use tape, sticky putty or other clever methods to creatively position your gift.
